Montreal, April 12, 2012 - A true pioneer and still current, M.Net will celebrate its 2000th show on April 19, 7:30 p.m. on MusiquePlus . Alone in his niche on television, since 1998, Denis Talbot and his collaborators deal with technology, video games, software and new gadgets. Remarkable longevity By smashing the figure of 2000, Mr. Net therefore ranks among the Quebec television programs with the greatest longevity , behind Bobino (5170) and surpassing Virginie (1740) and Watatatow (1225). Quite a feat for a specialized broadcast!

M.Net: the well-cooked

Beginning at 7:30 p.m. on MusiquePlus, the 2000th edition of M. Net will be presented in the form of a well-cooked by Denis Talbot by his collaborators and several special guests. All in a party format with arcade games. Viewers will be able to continue the experience on the web with a special live broadcast starting at 8 p.m. on MusiquePlus.com: The after-party for the 2000th anniversary of M.Net.

In figures, Mr. Net is...

2000 interviews all over the world...United States, France, Germany, Japan...

The equivalent of 8 times around the planet in order to cover numerous events and conferences.

Reviews of 2800 video games.

Launches of the XBox, Nintendo Game Cube, Nintendo DS, DS Lite, Wii, Les Ants game, Speed Buster game, Disciples game, Antidote Prism software

World TV premiere presentation of Doom III and the unveiling of the existence of Deus Ex III .

Big names in interviews:

Alexis Pajitnov (creator of Tetris), Jacques Villeneuve, Georges Saint-Pierre, Shigeru Miyamoto (creator of Mario), Patrick Desilet (creator of Assassin's Creed), Kaz Hirai (CEO of Sony Computer Entertainment), Reggie Fils-Aimé (CEO of Nintendo of America), etc.

With its team of high caliber experts, M.Net is a reference for anyone interested in technologies giving their opinion on new products: electronic tablets, laptops, digital frames, all-in-one computers, printers, systems sound system, remote-controlled helicopter, web camera, cameras, game accessories, mice, keyboards, etc.
